Reformation Day Celebration

What a fun day was had out at the Karges farm last Sunday! A huge thanks to all of the Karges family for providing such a wonderful outing for all of us city slickers! The highlights were the fresh-pressed apples, the rope games, and the HUGE pot of soup made by combining all kinds of ingredients provided by everyone bringing a can or bag or box of some kind of soup ingredients. Not much beats the good, clean fun on the wide open spaces of a North Dakota farm.

Investment Missions Fair

We plan to hold an investment fair again in December. In the past, many of you have been so gracious as to share your talents in making lovely, healthy, and tasty items to sell for the cause of missions. If you are able to help again this year, you may begin planning now. If you haven't been to this event before, consider hand making items (soap, wholegrain bread, granola, crocheted/knitted/quilted items, woodworking, hand-painted artwork, etc.).
