

Remember to come to school this Sunday at 8 a.m.—unless we have another snow day!

Snow at Last!

Last week we had our first school's-cancelled snow days in six years! What an amazing sight it was to see so much snow fall in just a few days. It was fun to get to enjoy the snow when we got back to school this week, too.

OOTO Week

Next week is "Out-of-the-Ordinary" Week. The first OOTO thing about it is that we are having school on Sunday. In case you missed the reason why, I'll review. This Sunday was originally scheduled to be our science fair day with Bismarck. Bismarck had a change of plans, and it was then decided to not proceed with the fair, but we still need the hours in that were planned into our school calendar, so we will just have a regular school day. It is still only a four-day week for the students due to the teacher inservice on Thursday.

Sunday: Camp Day—wear your camping clothes and bring your sleeping bag
Monday: Backward Day—dress as backward as you can Tuesday: Twin Day—pick a friend or two and dress alike
Wednesday: Hair-Do-Da Day—make it

fancy, foofy, and funny

SNOW

Point to Ponder

"Faith does not operate in the realm of the possible. There is no glory for God I that which is humanly possible. Faith begins where man's power ends."

— George Müller

Friends

Janna Wright

of years at IHAS: 6th

My favorite Bible characters are: Daniel and Joseph because of their lifelong faithfulness no matter what the circumstances
 My favorite Bible passage is: 1 Thes. 4:13-18 because I can't wait for the day that Jesus comes and we are reunited with those that we love. There's so much hope and joy in that passage.

Favorite book of the Bible: Philippians and Revelation

Favorite color(s): purple and pale yellow

Favorite book besides the Bible: Desire of Ages and Mindy

Pet of choice: dog

Favorite food: homemade loaded nachos. Least favorite food: boiled cabbage, Nuteena

Favorite candy: See's Toffee-ettes, Raffaello, Almond Joy

Favorite scent: honeysuckle & fresh-cut alfalfa

Worst scent: dead mouse

Favorite hymn: "Marvelous Grace"

Favorite hot lunch: baked potato bar

Favorite way to travel: e-bike Place I'd most like to go: Grand Canyon and the Alps

One of my heroes is my Dad because he was always ready to share his faith

One of the nicest things anyone has done for me: when I was young my piano teacher offered free lessons when I almost had to quit because my family couldn't afford them.

Best life accomplishment: facing my fear of deep water and learning to swim

An interesting person from history is: Ellen White; I would love to hear her preach.

Name I'd choose for myself: When I was little I wished my name was Susan

Best age to be is 0-10 because I loved being a kid on the farm.

I'm afraid of: heights

Past jobs: rock picker, baby sitter, receptionist, waitress/cook, custodian, telemarketer, teaching in Tennessee, Kentucky, Alaska, and Texas

This makes me happy: being outdoors/camping with my husband

Best thing ever invented: telephone

Name I'd choose for a boat: "Seas the Day"

I'm allergic to: horseflies

This bugs me: negativity and dishonesty

Something my parents say all the time is: Dad: "How much did that cost?" Mom: "Have you been drinking enough water?"

The best thing I know how to bake is: carrot cake

Something I'm eager to do when I grow up is spend eternity in heaven.

If I opened a store, I'd sell: healthy groceries

I'd like everyone to know Jesus as a personal friend.
