What if someone told you they know about an investment that was sure to pay off? Would you be likely to give it a try (as long as it was morally sound)? Well, here's an idea that will pay dividends with your children: Research has shown that the very best investment you can make as a parent is to spend quality time with your children. This helps children develop positive attitudes and skills that help them be successful in school and in life. Here are some top notch ways to spend time together:

- 1) Family worship—nothing expands the mind like being in the Word, and spending time with God as a family will bring you closer to God and to each other.
- 2) Play time—a great way to build relationships and get exercise (mind or brain) together
- 3) Talk time—one on one time to visit and listen
- 4) Homework—if your child has homework, take a few minutes to look it over and offer help if needed

What happens in school is important, home life is powerful, and the two teamed up together = best possible scenario for the students!

Prevent Summer Slump

Yay! We are almost to summer break. A vacation is good for all of us, but let's not stop learning over the summer, okay? Visit our school library or the city library and find some great books to do a little reading every day. Whether you travel afar or stay close to home, there are new things to see, do, and experience. I can't wait to hear the things my students learn this summer.

If anyone is interested in a neat resource for summer learning, check out these summer bridge activity books on Amazon. They cost about $10 and are available for any grade. They are paced to have one page per day with a little bit of every subject mixed together.

Spring Picnic

Weather pending, we plan to have a picnic and outdoor activities at the usual site (by the dog park at 455 8th Ave SW) on Sunday, May 22. We are also going to use the occasion to welcome our new pastor and his family as well as a farewell party for the Mtonga family. Please plan to join us and bring picnic food to share along with any outdoor games you have.

Spring Program/Graduation

You're invited to celebrate the close of another school year with us on May 24 at 6:30 pm. All students will be involved, so please plan to attend. The colors for the occasion are red, gold, and black, so if your child happens to have something in that color, that would look great. If not, just wear nice church attire. Please bring finger foods for a reception afterward.

Point to Ponder

"Our heavenly Father never takes anything from His children unless He means to give them something better." -- George Müller

Chuckle Bit

Did you hear about the claustrophobic astronaut? He just needed a little space.
