

IHAS NEWS

That they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord; that He may be glorified! Isaiah 61:3

REFORMATION CELEBRATION

Wintry weather postponed our outing to the Karges farm. But we enjoyed the delayed outing last Sunday even though it was a drippy day! Thank you, Karges family, for all the time, effort, and expense you spent in making the event happen. We had a great time.

FALL ACROSTIC POETRY

Scratchy hands and feet I have
 Cats and crows are scared of me
 A hedgehog is huddling in the grass at my feet
 Raccoons and rats hustle through the patch
 Eager crows want some corn but they won't come near me!
 Created from hay is how I was made
 Rabbits run around me all day long
 October is the month of fall; so be happy
 Wagons are passing through with laughing children

Fall is almost over.

SPIRIT AWARD

Ms. Hay came back just in time to take care of the mousy visitors for Mrs. Wright. What a trooper!

CHUCKLE BIT

Q: Why did the teacher wear sunglasses to school?
 A: Her teachers were so bright.

QUOTABLE QUOTE

My conscience is captive to the Word of God.
 -Martin Luther

Eagles

Eagles are pretty creatures.
 They soar in the sky seeking
 Leaving their nests; they break their stay.
 Slowly you'll see a pair of wings flying free
 The eagle's eyes can see from very far away.
 The way it sways so beautifully,
 I'm sure it can see perfectly.
 I like eagles and how they look.
 I can't see anywhere close to how far it does
 Even if I stood.

by Alyna Ratliff

"There are no "ifs" in God's kingdom.

His timing is perfect.

And no places are safer than other places.

The center of His will is our only safety.

His will is our hiding place.

Let us pray that we may always know it.

'Lord Jesus, keep me in Your will.

Don't let me go mad by poking about outside it.'
