

I HAS NEWS

That they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord; that He may be glorified! Isaiah 61:3

SCHOOL PROGRAM

In spite of the questionable weather and road conditions, every student was able to get to church and be a part of the Christmas program. We were very proud of the students for learning the many and lengthy lines to the songs as well as the script they recited.

VESPERS, CAROLING, AND MISSION FAIR

Thanks to many generous souls who supported the fair, whether through purchasing, donating goods, or supplying other buyers with funds, we currently have $7659.11 more to send to missions. Added to what we already had from Let's Move Day, that brings us to a total of $9523.11 to go to the ASAP well digging project and $1500 to help MOVE with the mission training they are doing in Bolivia that Grandpa Perry will be helping with in January. If you would still like to contribute to the ASAP well project in Myanmar or give to support MOVE needs, it's not too late!

HOLIDAY FESTIVITIES

This week, grade 3-8 made some ornaments. They each chose which type they wanted to make, and the results were magnificent! See photos on the opposite side of this page. Also, you'll see the students who participated in the "Dress Festive" contest. The lower graders and Facebook friends voted on who was the most festive. It was a
