Happy Heart Banquet

It appeared that there were a lot of happy hearts at the banquet last Saturday evening. If you were unable to come, we missed you! From the feedback we received though, it looks like we will repeat this event in the future. A HUGE thanks to the many folk who pitched in by buying/preparing items to make the special occasion possible. You went above and beyond!

3rd Annual I-did-a-read is on

Please read regularly and don't leave it for the last few days so panic sets in. Have your parents record your minutes and bring the sheet back so your dog can advance down the trail. If you haven't begun yet, then there's no time like the present! The reading logs must be turned in by February 28.

Angel 37 Dinner

Willie Hale has organized a great service opportunity for our students and church family. We will be providing supper for about 120 people (all community members are welcome to attend, but it's specifically targeted for those who might not often have a chance at a good meal). I would like for all IHAS students grades 3-9 to be at the Queen of Peace church on 12th St by 6 pm. We need people to sign up for the part of the haystack meal they can bring. Look for the clipboard at church this Sabbath.

Amen Pantry

We postponed our visit to Amen until this coming Tuesday due to transportation issues. We would really like to take 100 pounds of donations each time. Please help us! Thank you!

Music Fest

Grades 5-8 leave for DAA's music fest on Wednesday, February 20 and will be involved with that through Sabbath. Please note that the students will need a ride home following the concert on Saturday night.

What to bring:

- Bedding (sleeping bag or sheets, etc.)
- Toiletries (shampoo, soap, toothbrush...)
- Towel, washcloths, pajamas, Bible & personal devotional items
- Clothes appropriate for attending classes (if you have any question on whether it's appropriate, then bring something else.)
- Attire for playing sports in the gym
- Vespers & church attire
- Concert attire (all black or black with a white top)

What NOT to Bring:

- ⇒ Gaming devices
- ⇒ Electronic communication devices
- ⇒ Pocket knives or anything of that category
- ⇒ Clothes that are not modest or display characters/words in opposition to Christian values

Some evenings, the dorm "stores" open for students to purchase snacks. A small amount of money may be brought for that purpose. Neither DAA nor IHAS is responsible for money or items that are lost or stolen so limiting the number and value of items brought along is encouraged.
