Educating for a Life of Service

Week of Prayer

We received a rich blessing this week when Pastor David Machado and musician, Benjamin Jenkins, came to share with us each morning. The theme was "Jesus and Me." Our theme song was "Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus." The first morning, Pastor Machado told a story about a man who got an umbrella because he was told it would keep him dry. He was disappointed when he still got soaked in the rainstorm even though he was holding this wonder stick. He learned however, that in order to be effective, the umbrella had to be opened. Pastor Machado encouraged us to apply the same principle to our Bibles. We must open them and read them in order to be blessed by them. Tuesday, he reminded us that God is with us and watching over us wherever we go. On Wednesday, Pastor Machado talked to the students about why we should want to study the Bible: 1) Jesus is our Maker, 2) He sustains us each day, and 3) He died for us to save us from our sins. On Thursday, Pastor Machado concluded by talking about how the Word of God is the Bread of life. Just as we need to eat physical food daily, we also need to eat the Bread of life regularly by studying God's Word. And just as the Israelites said, "Manna" (What is it?) when they saw the bread God sent from heaven, we need to ask God daily, "What is it you have for me today from your Word?" Thank you, Pastor and Ben! We will miss you!!

Getting to Know You Better

Favorite Bible character: God because He made us , created the earth and died His only Son for us. He loves us even though we are bad to Him and don't pray enough.
Favorite Bible passage: When Moses struck the rod and lightning came down & he was holding the 10 commandments
Favorite color: red, blue, white, black
Favorite kind of pet: horse; I like horses now
Favorite food: everything mixed together

Least favorite food: broccoli      Favorite sweet treat: orange juice

Favorite smell: perfume      Worst smell: flowers

A hero of mine is God because He saved us

Something I was happy to accomplish was: being able to pray and do good things

Interesting person from history: King Josiah

If I renamed myself I would choose: Jake

Best age to be is 1 because everyone would love me.

Future career possibility: a dentist

I am afraid of: going to sleep in the dark

Seeing my mom makes me happy; I don't get to see her much.

I feel loved when I'm close to my sisters and brothers.

I like to give away my love to God.

Best way to travel for me: God's chariot

Favorite outdoor activity: play with Ebnay, chasing her around

Best things to use to build a fort: sand buckets

Something that bugs me: when Ebnay watches my stuff

Another language I wish I could speak: Texas talk

If I were a teacher, I'd teach my students to have perfect handwriting

The thing I'm most eager to do when I grow up is go to heaven

If I were a dad, my top three rules would be:

1) no jumping 2) no screaming 3) no calling people on the phone when I'm not there unless it's important

If I had a store, I'd sell: posters and stuff about God

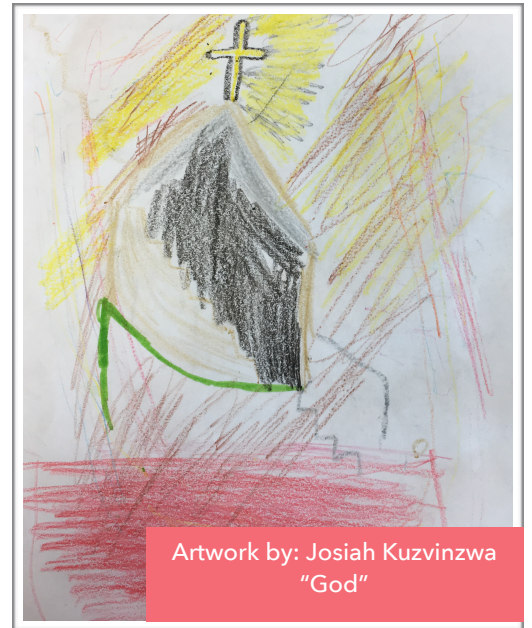

I would like people to know that I have memories that I like but I forgot them.

"So weak is man, so ignorant and blind, that did not God sometimes withhold in mercy what we ask, we should be ruined at our own request." –Hannah Moore
